

David was the youngest boy in his family. He took care of the sheep for the family.

A lion came one day and took one of the lambs. David went after the lion. He must protect the sheep no matter how dangerous it was.

David saved the lamb and killed the lion.

.....

On another day, a bear came to take one of David's lambs. David fought and killed the bear. He saved the lamb. (Read this in I Samuel 17:36)

TURN CARD OVER

Lions and bears must have come up from the jungle around the river Jordan. They were on the prowl for food. The lambs looked like a very good dinner.

David did not tell anyone about killing the lion and the bear. But, later, when he wanted to fight Goliath, he told King Saul. David said,

God has saved me out of the paw of the lion and out of the paw of the bear. God will also save me from this enemy of Israel.

(See I Samuel 17:37)

Lions and bears must have come up from the jungle around the river Jordan. They were on the prowl for food. The lambs looked like a very good dinner.

David did not tell anyone about killing the lion and the bear. But, later, when he wanted to fight Goliath, he told King Saul. David said,

God has saved me out of the
paw of the lion and out of the paw of the bear. God will also
save me from this enemy of Israel.

(See I Samuel 17:37)