

Sometimes men wore a long piece of cloth wrapped around and around the head with the end tucked in. This looked a little bit like a hat without a brim.

City men often wore a red turban.

It is not easy to wrap a turban to stay on your head. If you want to make a turban you might want to sew it in place. Then you will not have to wrap it each time.

↑
Make a back of stiff cardboard to fit your head

