

HOUSES WITH MORE THAN ONE ROOM (H)

Most of the country people lived in a one-room house. If they were able they had an upper room and a patio. But many people living in the bigger cities had larger houses.

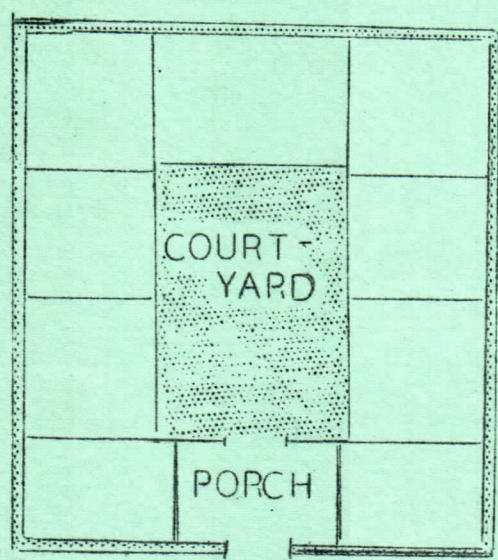

Some houses were built higher. The walls of the first story were stone. Higher up the walls were made of sun-baked clay bricks.

Most people had several rooms that were built around a courtyard.

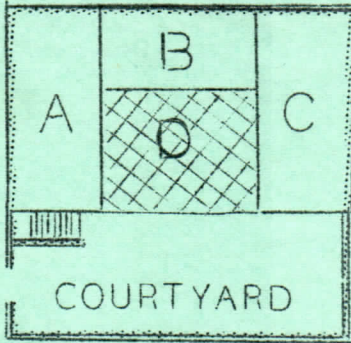

The house had 3 rooms.
A and C were storage rooms for wine, grain, oil
B - family lived here

The stairs that led to the roof are inside the wall of the courtyard

This house is like a hollow square
The rooms are built all around the courtyard.
