He has decided to stop all the ungodliness and evil of this world. He can no longer take the rebellion, denial, cursing, immorality, stealing, drunkenness, sorcery, and murder of man. Jesus Christ is coming back to this earth, and He is going to establish the righteousness of God forever and ever. But before He can come and establish righteousness in the earth, a few things have to be done.

- ➡ All the godless and evil armies of this world have to be destroyed. This we have just seen in the former chapter (Rev. 16).

- ➡ All the godless governments, politics, and social systems of this world have to be destroyed. This will be the discussion of the next chapter (Rev. 18).

When these three things are done, then the ungodly and evil of this earth will be removed, and Jesus Christ can come to earth and set up His kingdom of righteousness. Because it will be the great Marriage Supper of the Lord Jesus Christ Himself and is the celebration of the very thing for which He died. It will be the first time that all the redeemed of all ages will come together at one time to honor the Lamb who was slain to redeem the universe. The great mystery of our age has been the so-called silence of God in the face of prevailing wickedness. Sin has stalked around the earth unashamed without much divine intervention. But one day the judgment of the Almighty will be laid upon the world. Then we shall know why He permitted Satan and sin. The mystery of the struggle between light and darkness, good and evil, will be made known in that day.

I confess that at times I have been baffled, and even troubled, by questions in my own mind as to the strange providential ways and dealings of God. But I know that I must wait in patience until that day when the mystery will be made known. That which is now unknown will then be revealed.
